Whoomp! There it is!

The Clarks Volleyball team welcomed back four letter winners: Carla Schultz, Brenda Pollard, Tosha Van Pelt, and Amber Ziemba. They were unbeaten until the Fairmont Tournament where they lost to CHB. The team worked hard and concentrated in practice, but things just wouldn't get fired up until the second set in most of the games they participated in. This left Coach Goodman trying various tactics to get them playing like a team.

Carla Shultz led the team with 108 kills, Brenda Pollard came in with 61, and Tosha Van Pelt had a total of 34. Brenda Pollard did a majority of the setting with 126 assists. Brigit Dush helped out with 46 and Carla also added 27. Tosha Van Pelt scored 129 points for the Bombers, Amber Ziemba 95, and Carla Schultz 80.

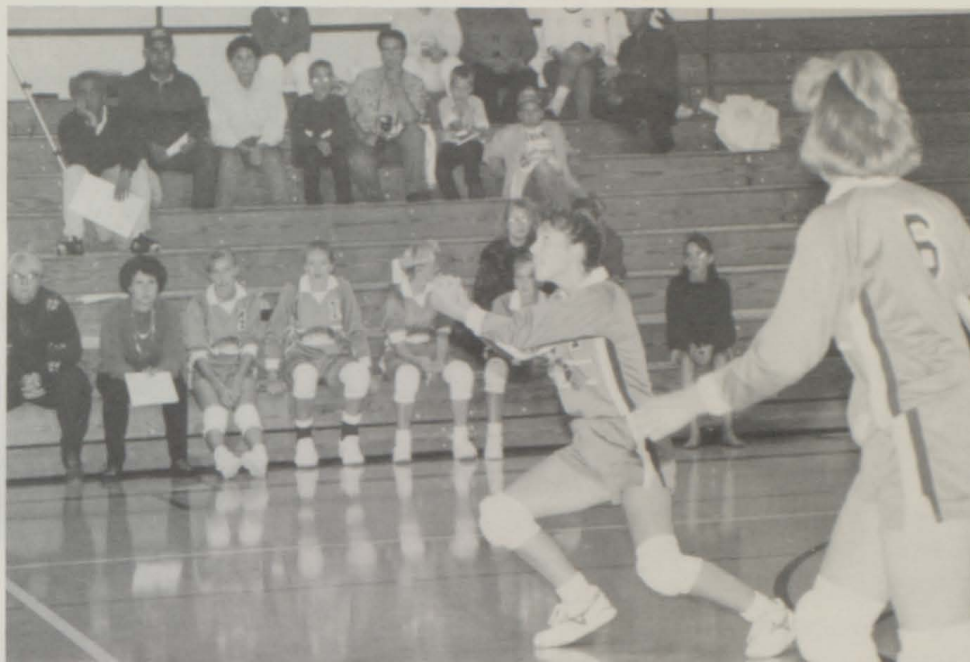

(Center) Brenda Pollard bumps the ball to get a set and spike against the Fullerton Warriorettes. The rest of the team is ready and willing to help her.

(Below) Kristi Lesiak receives the ball as Sherri Zoucha gets ready to help her in a set against the Fullerton Warriorettes.

BOMBERS MAKE STATE PLAYOFFS, 1st SINCE 1987

FOOTBALL - '93

The Clarks Bomber football team made the State Playoffs for the first time since 1987. First year head Coach Andy Vrbka said he was pleased with the quality of play from the Clarks team. He noted the four losses came at the hands of two state champions, and 4th and 6th place playoff teams. The Bombers were a proud, tough team in 1993.

The loss of senior Corey Grause to a broken wrist bone hurt the Bombers. Standout play by seniors Judd Douglas, Matt Booth, Keith Urkoski and Jerry Wruble helped the team to a winning season. The returning team members look forward to a winning season with the six juniors who will form the base of the team in 1994.

"Ain't Goin' Down Until ..."

The theme for Homecoming 1993 was taken from a song by country singer Garth Brooks - "Ain't Goin' Down Until the Sun Comes Up!"

The coronation took place during the half-time of the very frigid, windy Greeley-Clarks football game (which, of course, Clarks won.)

Music at the dance was provided by Kevin and Rhonda Guilford. We thank them for a job well done.

Krazy Kamp

This year, Mrs. Vyhldal and the Drama team presented "Krazy Kamp", a humorous play about the ups and downs of summer camp life.

It was a typical summer for the girls at Camp Pocahantas, managed by Eve Hunnicut, (Theresa Kirby) until Vivian Vandersnap arrived. Vivian, (Amy Carlson) is a selfish, little rich girl who will do anything to get back home.

At this time, Adam Apple, Eve's close friend who runs a boys camp across the lake, asks if he and his boys can stay at Camp Pocahantas for a "few days". Adam is a sweet talker and finally, he convinces Eve.

As if Eve doesn't have enough problems, she also discovers that there is a runaway, Kate Milfloss (Audra Lyons) hiding out at Camp Pocahantas.

This is just the beginning of Eve's summer camp nightmare as she goes on to meet Cleopatra, the snake charmer (Christy Sweet), Clams Marinara, the gangster, (Eric Manstedt), and Dixie (Brandy Veburg) his sidekick.

Cast of "Krazy Kamp":

Willard (Micky Yrkoski) expresses his disgust about the thought of going to work.

Cleopatra Nile, (Christy Sweet) explains that her hobbies include exotic dancing and snake charming.

"Excellent!" exclaims inspector Doyle, (Kent Helgoth) during his reevaluation of Camp John Smith.

Mrs. Thistlemist, (Joanie Staniec) was not amused when the Moe sisters, (Kevin Urkoski, David Carlson, filling in for Trent Engel, and Dustin Grafe) appeared.

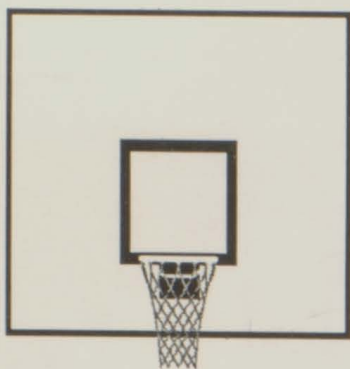

Theodora, (Heather Davis) looks exhausted after she jogged "slowly" to the kitchen for an afternoon snack.

Cindy, (Ammie Lyons) listens unenthusiastically as Mr. Terwilliter, (Eric Manstedt) tells her the story of the huge buffalo that roams John Smith.

Locker treats are a big success!

Posters, brownies,
rice-crispies,
cookies, and candies were all well deserved!

Clarks High School experienced some changes throughout the year. Try-outs were held for varsity cheerleaders in May and the girls were appointed cheerleaders for the entire year. They were required to cover all four sports: football, volleyball, basketball, and wrestling. They had opportunity to support the football team in state playoffs, the basketball teams in sub-district play, and the wrestling team down at the state meet.

At the various extra-curricular activities that were held throughout the year, the cheerleaders helped to boost the spirit by putting up poster, signs, or locker treats inside of the lockers. This was appreciated by teams, coaches, and student managers.

The cheerleaders were active in several fund raising activities. They provided a tail-gate party and worked at concession stands for basketball and track. The cheerleaders also helped to organize the Homecoming events. A big thanks goes to all of the students and fans that helped to make it an enjoyable event.

Senior Wins Poetry Honors and Publication

Clarks Senior Shevaun Johnson has had two poems published in a quarterly newspaper devoted to secondary students and teachers of writing. Her poem "If Morning Smiles" is printed here and was also published by The National Library of Poetry in Maryland. In September 1993 she won 1st place among more than 400 entries at the Nebraska Literature Festival and 1st place in April 1994 at the Midland College Poetry competition which had more than 200 entries. Congratulations are offered to Shevaun.

If Morning Smiles

Morning knows the answers to life.
When the sun is perpendicular
to the Earth,
shadows gather under
common things;
clover and iris,
businessmen and drunks.
And they wait
and they talk about morning
which pulls them out
long and thin
and draws them up shorter shorter

shorter
until they stand,
feet on head,
beneath common things.
Morning knows the answer
to a shadow's life;
the sun
first behind, then
above, then ahead.
That is all.
And the shadows run
if morning smiles.

Guests at
First Class Banquet and Dance

Blazing Thunder provided music for the 1994 Junior-Senior Prom. Junior parents provided the very delicious meal for the Juniors and Seniors and the other guests present.

Theme for the Prom was "Phantom of the Opera" and the black, white and maroon decorations set the mood for the smoke and lights which accompanied the excellent music.

The Prom was followed by a post-prom party, a tradition now in its fifth year. Again parents and volunteers from the Clarks community served as operators of the various games and drawings, making sure all participants were winners of at least one prize.

Sixty-two Years of Experience - Bye, Bye!

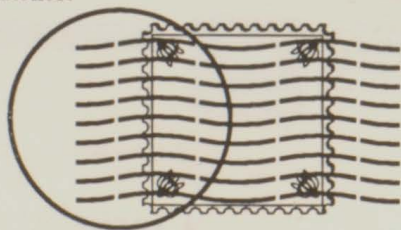

It goes without saying Miss Zoucha's and Mr. Manstedt's faces will be missed in the halls of the Clarks Public Schools. They take with them not only the best wishes of everyone, but thirty-seven and twenty-five years experience, respectively, at Clarks. Good luck to them and to Dave Pauli as well, Mr. Pauli is moving to Gering where he will teach and coach.

Yearbook Staff - '93-'94

Seniors - Ammie Lyons, Renae Hannappel, Amber Ziemba and Junior Kim Merriman.

Left - Ammie and Kim write information about group and individual picture orders from those just photographed. Right - Kim and Ammie are models for testing the camera's need for additional light

Kim ponders over which picture to use and what she will say in the caption for the picture.
